CREIGHTON

2007 VOLLEYBALL

Qwest Center OMAHA

Home to the 2008 NCAA Volleyball Championships, Qwest Center OMAHA continues to be the site of record-breaking crowds. The venue attracted more than 17,000 fans for the 2006 NCAA championship match.

This year on Sept. 2, Creighton volleyball will host Cal Poly at Qwest Center OMAHA as part of the Holiday Inn Downtown Classic.

On Sept. 24, 2006, Creighton hosted 12,112 fans for its match with Nebraska, the second-largest volleyball-only crowd in NCAA regular-season history.

2008 NCAA Volleyball Championships Host

Last year's Creighton volleyball team tied for 16th nationally with 1,611 fans per match. The CU men's basketball team ranked 13th nationally with 15,909 fans per game.

Qwest Center OMAHA will also serve as the host for the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament (2008), US Olympic Team Trials for Swimming (2008) and the NCAA Wrestling Championships (2010).

The 2007 Creighton Volleyball Media Guide is a production of the Creighton University Sports Information Office, directed by Robert Anderson. Interior design, writing and editing by Anderson using an iMac with QuarkXPress and Adobe Photoshop CS3 software.

Editorial assistance and research provided by Rob Simms, Brent Elsasser, Kim Manning, Kevin Sarver, Dewey Kennison and the Creighton Volleyball coaching staff. Photography by Creighton University Creative Services, Illinois State Athletics, Dave Weaver, Scott Bruhn, Mark Lauer, Alan Solarana, Michelle Ratzlaff, Portrait Innovations and Eric Francis. Cover design by Damon Andersen of Creative Reservoir in Ralston. Printing by MultiAd in Peoria, Ill.

With six starters and the libero returning from last year's 21-10 team, expectations are high that this could be a group that achieves a pair of program firsts: a Missouri Valley Conference title and a berth into the NCAA Tournament.

What figures to be Creighton's strongest team on paper also faces what might be the strongest schedule in program history, as the Jays will play at least 10 matches against teams that won an NCAA Tournament match last year.

With volleyball enthusiasm at an all-time high in the state, look for Creighton to improve upon its No. 16 national rank in average attendance as it stakes its claim as one of the nation's fastest-rising programs.

Korie Lebeda

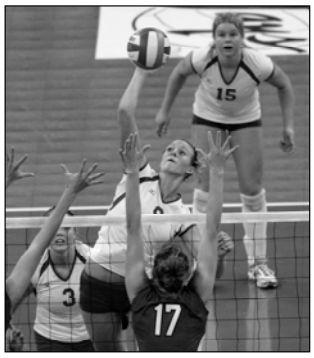
Setters

Two-time MVC assists leader Korie Lebeda returns for her junior season with a shot to break Creighton's career assists mark.

The Omaha native, named a first-team all-MVC pick last season, was a two-time tournament MVP in 2006 and looks to be fully healed from an off-season wrist injury.

After playing every point of every match the past two seasons, look for Lebeda to once again play a vital role in the success of the Bluejays.

Rachel Vrbicky, younger sister of former Bluejay basketball player Sarah Vrbicky, will serve as back-up setter.



Jessica Houts

Middle Blockers

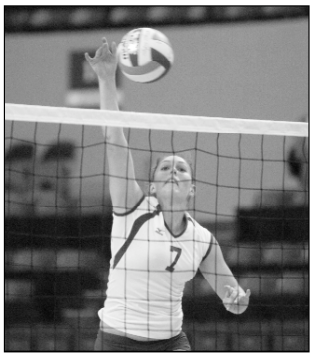
Creighton returns three veteran middle blockers with the trio of Kelly Goc, Jessica Houts and Lauren Bloemke.

Goc was a first-team all-MVC pick last year after leading Creighton in kills and hitting percentage. The senior from Ralston leads all active MVC players with 1,000 career kills, and is the team's most consistent front-line player.

Houts was a second-team all-Valley selection last year after finishing as the league's only player to rank in the top 10 in both kills per game and blocks per game. Houts could also see time on the right side, where she starred when given that opportunity last year.

Bloemke came out of a planned redshirt last season and saw time in the starting line-up by the end of the year. The sophomore from Tampa, Fla., continues to increase her blocking and offensive diversity, and will once again be a key cog in the middle.

Kelly Goc



Abby Baumann

Outside Hitters

Five players are in the fight to see time on the outside, including four players with extensive experience.

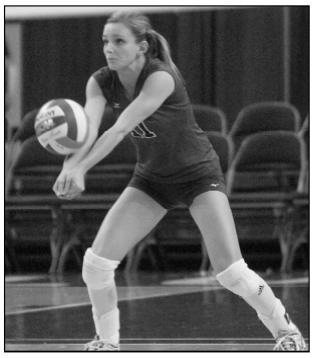
Junior Amanda Cvejdlik ranked among the MVC's top five in kills and aces per game last year while spending much of her time on the right side.

Senior Abby Baumann became the first outside hitter in school history to amass 400 digs in a season, and also added 323 kills. Baumann is among the most versatile players on the team, as evidenced by her move to the back row late last season.

Junior Carolyn Decker was an MVC All-Freshman selection in 2004, but missed most of 2005 and 2006 with separate season-ending injuries. If she can regain her old form, Decker figures to be a major contributor once again.

Sarah Schulze also has the skills to play a full rotation. The sophomore started 18 matches despite missing a month with a broken foot last year.

New to the program is highly-touted freshman Allie Oelke. A two-time state champ at Chaska (Minn.) High School, Oelke was also a four-time AAU All-American while playing for one of the nation's best club programs. She'll look to continue a trend that has seen the Jays land five players on the MVC All-Freshman Team in the past four years.



Katie Mehal

Liberos & Defensive Specialists

After being recognized as one of the nation's top defensive teams last year, most of Creighton's back row returns for 2007.

Katie Mehal played in all 31 matches as CU's libero last year, and her 488 digs rank second-most in school history. Also a top server, the senior southpaw led the team in serving percentage and service attempts last year.

Maggie Workman returns for her sophomore season after playing in 21 matches last season. Workman finished with 80 digs in 2006 and saw most of her time in October when classmate Sarah Schulze was hurt.

Bianca Rivera comes to Omaha after two standout seasons at Western Nebraska Community College, where she was regarded as one of the best defensive players in the junior college ranks. Creighton's first Puerto Rican volleyball player ever, Rivera could push Mehal for the libero role.

Also new to the program is Melanie Feldman. The Hawaii native comes from a Punahou High School team that was state runner-up and is expected to add defensive depth to the club.

Head Coach Kirsten Bernthal Booth enters her fifth season leading a Creighton volleyball program that is on the move.

Under her direction, the program has twice set a school record for wins while also skyrocketing up the charts to rank 16th nationally in attendance last year.

The tireless effort of Booth and her staff is a major reason wins have gone up 700% (from three to 21) and average attendance is up 683% (from 236 to 1,611 fans per match) in her short tenure.

Booth's .558 winning percentage is best in program history, while her 67 wins are one shy of the school record.

In four seasons, Booth has coached four first-team and five second-team all-MVC picks, while also recruiting and coaching five MVC all-Freshman Team honorees. Booth's teams have also included 13 members of the MVC Scholar-Athlete Team in that time, including 2006 Academic All-American Emily Greisch. All but three of Booth's 120 matches at Creighton have included at least one freshman in the starting line-up.

Booth's 2006 team won a school-record 21 matches, picked up tournament titles at Montana State and Middle Tennessee, and reached the semifinals of the MVC Tournament. They took a game from eventual national champion Nebraska, and also picked up three wins over long-time nemesis Illinois State and a road victory at Wichita State.

The 2005 campaign was highlighted by the program's first-ever win at Northern Iowa, a win over Big East power Marquette, and the title at the San Diego State Invitational. The Jays would finish 16-14.

Booth's 2004 club won a then-record 18 matches while also picking up tournament titles at events hosted by New Mexico and Missouri. Creighton was also the only club in the MVC to beat the regular-season and tourney champ, Wichita State, in 2004.

In 2003, Booth inherited a team that went 3-23 prior to her arrival and improved that nearly identical squad to a 12-18 mark in her debut season at Creighton. That fall, the Bluejays helped pave the foundation for a promising future by signing five Nebraska products that composed one of the nation's most-heralded recruiting classes.

Booth has proven to be a popular coach among her players and within the Omaha community, a key factor in the team's record crowds each season under Booth. Last year's squad ranked 16th nationally in average home attendance, including the second-largest regular-season volleyball-only crowd in NCAA history (12,112).

Booth enters her fifth season as head coach at Creighton with an impressive past, both on and off the court.

On the court, Booth was an all-state setter in high school at Lincoln East and conference MVP in college at Truman State.

Off the court, she earned Academic All-American honors, was named the 1997 Missouri NCAA Woman of the Year, earned her Master's degree, and has twice been named District Coach of the Year.

Prior to coming to Creighton, Booth went a combined 112-41 in three seasons at Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. All three of her teams won at least 36 matches. Her first team reached the NJCAA finals before falling to St. Clair College. Her second team placed fourth nationally and her final club won 39 matches and had seven players earn academic all-conference honors.

In addition to her coaching responsibilities, she served as the school's human resource coordinator, where she was in charge of staff development and wellness for all faculty and staff at Kirkwood.

Booth served as a volunteer coach with the University of Iowa in the fall of 1997, helping to run drills and scout opponents. The following spring, she served as interim head coach while running practice and doing other assorted administrative tasks. She later earned her Master's degree in higher education administration with an emphasis in athletic administration from Iowa in 2000.

As an undergrad, Booth's teams at Truman State went 101-54 with her running the offense at setter. She was named the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association Freshman of the Year in 1993, and earned all-MIAA accolades her final three seasons as well. She capped off her career in 1996 by earning MIAA Player of the Year honors and setting new school records for assists in a season (1,662) and career (6,077), the latter of which ranked third in NCAA history at the Division II level when she graduated. She remains among Truman's all-time leaders for digs (1,410), aces (127) and blocks (230).

A member of the Student Senate at Truman State where she graduated magna cum laude with a degree in communications, she was named the 1997 Missouri NCAA Woman of the Year.

Growing up, Booth excelled in both tennis and volleyball at Lincoln East High School, where she is a member of the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. In tennis, she was a three-time All-American and two-time state champion at #1 singles. She was also a second-team all-state volleyball player.

Booth and her husband, Erik, reside in Omaha. The couple has two daughters: Reese, who turned two in May, and Hayden, who was born on August 3, 2007.

The Booth family: Erik, Reese and Kirsten

What are your goals as a coach and for the kids in your program?
I think there are three main goals.

Our first goal is to develop people and make sure that they are a better person when they graduate than when they came in. It comes down to the philosophy of developing work ethic, teamwork and dedication.

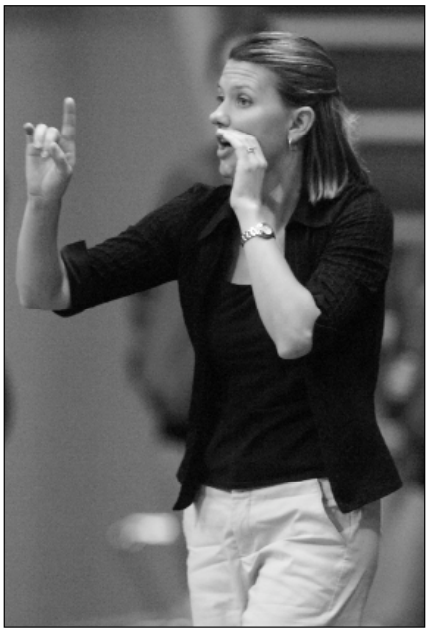
Second, I want the players to enjoy the experience and leave Creighton volleyball loving the game. I think too often in college athletics, players are burned out by the end. I think you can work hard, be passionate and demand a lot but still do it with the love of the game in mind.

I'd be remiss if I didn't say that my other goal is to win. I think doing things correctly and in an ethical way can still be done in a winning manner in Division I college athletics. That is our focus here at Creighton.

How much do you emphasize graduating and academics?
We're able to attract great student-athletes because we can differentiate ourselves from other schools. If you've got an outstanding recruit who is looking at some other schools, Creighton is going to win out a lot of the time if that person is academically-focused.

Our athletic department ranks 23rd nationally in graduation rate and our team owns a GPA of 3.38. Academic excellence is a way of life at Creighton, and we're proud to do our part.

Our team is full of kids who are committed to working hard in the classroom. The academic support that our kids receive is outstanding when it comes to tutors and meeting with advisors. The last thing is that we talk about it. I bring it up almost on a daily basis whether or not they are working hard in the classroom. They know that we sincerely want them to care about what they are doing academically.



How is Creighton Volleyball like a family once your players get here?
When we recruit, we recruit kids that we feel confident are good people. That's led to great chemistry. Obviously we have a variety of different personalities, but it comes down to people with strong character and our kids love each other.

As a staff, our coaches enjoy each other and I think that is displayed through our players. Our staff cares about the players as people. They know that if something is going on in their life, any of the coaches are going to be there. Volleyball becomes second very quickly when something important is going on in their life that they need help with.

Describe a typical practice during the fall:
I think our players would say our practices are very high energy. We ask a lot from them, but do it in a positive way.

We usually start with something competitive with a ball to warm up. After we stretch, we then often go into a deep-court competitive game. A lot of times we'll split for 30-45 minutes. Our middles might work with our setters, our outsides might do shot work, and our defensive specialists might do defensive or passing work. For the last 45 minutes or hour of practice, we'll do competitive games. I'm a big believer that we've got to teach players to compete so we put them in scenarios in every drill where they're competing.

One of the things you are proud of is the team's 16-4 record in five-game matches the last four years. What's the key?
I think you can teach people how to win, and we pride ourselves in that. Our success in fifth games is due to the fact that we don't overcoach. We tell our players to go out there, play hard and have fun. When it comes down to it, we're in athletics for the rush of fifth-game situations.

When it's 13-13 or 28-28, instead of being nervous we remind our players that we've worked so hard for this type of opportunity and how fun that is. We want to seize the moment and relax them. When it's 28-28, we want our players swinging hard and we'll play the odds that the ball is going to go down if they are swinging aggressively.

How has the move to the Civic helped your program?
People that come to the Civic say it's a top-20 atmosphere. I think that what our marketing department has done there is phenomenal. From the band to the cheerleaders to all our Bluejay Buddies who create our rally tunnel when the players come out. People who haven't been to the Civic to see a game definitely need to come out and see the energy and the atmosphere and they're always impressed.

You play another strong schedule. How will that help your team?
We feel like we have the capability to be a top-25 program, and to prove that we need to play top-25 teams. I think some people may look at our schedule and think the coach was a little bit crazy putting together such a tough schedule, however it is a testament of how confident I am in the ability of this team.

Our goal not only is to win a conference championship but to put ourselves in a situation to earn an at-large bid if we do not win the conference tournament. We feel by playing these teams we hold the cards now. Playing the best in the country can lead you to become one of the best in the country and that's our goal with Creighton Volleyball.

You had a great experience at Qwest Center Omaha last year. You're playing there again this year, with likely another large crowd and against a strong team like Cal Poly. Talk about that experience at the Qwest Center:
Playing in front of 12,000 people last year was an experience our players and staff will remember the rest of their lives. The exciting thing was that they thrived in that atmosphere. I thought they played a phenomenal match, particularly in the first two games.

Cal Poly is a top-15 team and we're excited to get them on a somewhat-homecourt situation. With the love of volleyball in the state, people are going to come out to watch phenomenal volleyball, and I think that is what it will be.

We're excited for the opportunity to play a great team in a great atmosphere and hopefully we'll be able to put our best on the court.

Yearly Highlights Under Booth

2006 (21-10, 12-6 MVC)

Creighton's first team to win 20 or more matches ranks among the national leaders in attendance as well. A five-game road win at Wichita State and exciting four-game match against eventual national champions Nebraska before more than 12,000 fans prove the program has reached unprecedented heights. Kelly Goc and Korie Lebeda are both named first-team All-Valley as the Jays beat three teams that reached the NCAA Tournament.

2005 (16-14, 10-8 MVC)

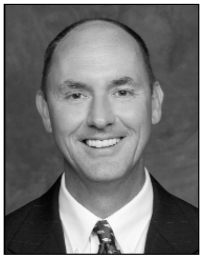
A road win at Northern Iowa highlights a 16-14 season. Leah Ratzlaff repeats her all-MVC honors and finishes 12th in league history in career kills. Freshman Korie Lebeda led the MVC with a school-record 13.34 assists per game and was joined by talented freshmen Jessica Houts and Amanda Cvejdlik.

2004 (18-11, 10-8 MVC)

A school-record seven-match winning streak that included wins at Missouri, New Mexico and Iowa helps Creighton set a record with 18 wins. Leah Ratzlaff is first-team all-MVC while Carolyn Decker and Kelly Goc are named to the MVC's All-Freshman Team.

2003 (12-18, 9-9 MVC)

Though it's virtually the same personnel, Booth's first team improves its win total by nine wins to finish 12-18. The season marks the program's move to the Omaha Civic Auditorium, and attendance records fall. Single-season school records were set for kills (Leah Ratzlaff), blocks (Ashley Williams), digs (Janeen Piller) and assists (Brittany Coleman).



Paul Giesselmann

Paul Giesselmann enters his fifth year at Creighton, and second as associate head coach. He was promoted from assistant coach to associate head coach in January of 2006.

Giesselmann serves as the program's recruiting coordinator while also organizing all fundraising efforts.

With his recommendations, Creighton has offered and signed the top prep players in Nebraska and the Midwest to complete five top-notch recruiting classes. The Jays own a league-high five selections to the MVC All-Freshman Team in the last four years and were one of two schools in league history with multiple All-Freshman team picks in consecutive seasons (2004 and 2005).

Creighton has won five tournaments in the past three years, including wins at events hosted by Missouri, San Diego State, New Mexico, Montana State and Middle Tennessee. Prior to Giesselmann's arrival, Creighton had owned just one tournament title in nine previous seasons.

Giesselmann spent eight seasons as head coach at the College of St. Mary's in Omaha, amassing an overall record of 227-80 before leaving in 2001 to spend time with his family.

While at CSM, Giesselmann had five teams win 30 or more matches and was named Midland Collegiate Athletic Conference Coach of the Year each of his last seven seasons. In addition, he was also named Tachikara Regional Coach of the Year four times (1996, '99, '00, '01) and was 2000 NAIA National Coach of the Year.

He won the Omaha Sportscasters Recognition Award in both 1996 and 2000. In 1999, the Omaha World-Herald named him as the Nebraska State College Women's Coach of the Year.

His teams won AVCA national team academic awards all eight years and had 11 All-American Scholar-Athletes. He also coached 12 All-Americans, 21 all-region selections and 33 all-MCAC picks. His student-athletes were honored as Regional Player of the Year three times and Conference Player of the Year on five occasions. His squads also won the MCAC Tournament his final seven seasons and were regular-season champs the final six campaigns. The program reached its highest-ever national ranking in 2000 when they were ranked second.

Prior to going to CSM, Giesselmann was an assistant coach at the University of Nebraska-Omaha in 1993-94. He also was a head volleyball coach at Duchesne Academy of the Sacred Heart (1992-93) and at Winside High School (1988-92) in both volleyball and basketball.

Giesselmann and his wife, Dr. Paige Groppe, have twin 11-year-old boys, Hunter and Garret, and a daughter, Ansley, born in April.

Angie Oxley Behrens

A former national champion and four-year starter at the University of Nebraska, Angie Oxley Behrens returns for her fifth season as an assistant coach at Creighton.

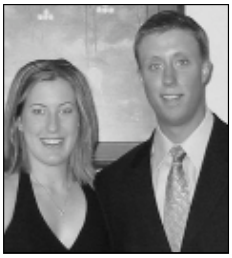
Behrens helps organize Creighton's camps in addition to her role in the Bluejay compliance office.

The last four years have seen the Creighton team record its top four single-season kill totals all-time, as well as the top four single-season individual marks that were set by Leah Ratzlaff and Kelly Goc.

Behrens has also trained three players to a spot on the MVC's All-Freshman team, middle blockers Kelly Goc (2004) and Jessica Houts (2005) as well as outside hitter Carolyn Decker (2004).

While at NU, Behrens won three Big 12 titles, was named 1997 Big 12 Freshman of the Year and chosen as the University's female student-athlete of the year in 2001 after leading the Cornhuskers to a 34-0 mark and national title in the fall of 2000 as a senior. She closed her career as the school's all-time digs leader with 1,086.

In the classroom, Behrens was a Chancellor's Scholar and four-time Highest Honors Distinction Medal honoree. She also was a four-year academic all-Big 12 selection, a recipient of an NCAA Postgraduate scholarship and one of 10 finalists for the 2001 NCAA Woman of the Year. She was also a member of the Mortar Board Honor Society, Pi Lambda Theta Honor Society, Golden Key, 2000 Homecoming Royalty Court and the Dean's List.



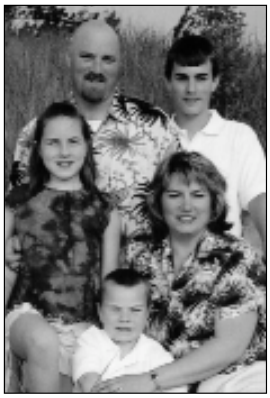
Behrens and her husband, Matt, were married in June of 2006. The couple resides in Omaha.

Steve Bymers

Also returning for his fifth season as a volunteer coach is Steve Bymers. Bymers helps in all facets of the team's practices and also tracks serve receive statistics on gameday.

Before coming to Creighton, Bymers had spent the previous two seasons as an assistant at nearby Dana College where he helped with practice, recruiting and statistics. Bymers was also an assistant coach at Gross Catholic High School for two seasons, helping the program win the Class B state title in 1999.

A fixture on the club circuit, Bymers has coached 10 teams to top-30 JOV National finishes in the last 10 years. He also has eight top-five finishes in the Open Division at National Qualifiers in seven seasons, including a first-place finish in the 17 OPEN Division at the 2007 Northern Lights Junior National Qualifier. Bymers also has won a national title in the USAV Men's 'A' Division in 1997.



In 2001 he helped start the Nebraska Elite Volleyball program, which has sent 48 teams to the national tournament in its first seven seasons.

Bymers and his wife, Kim, reside in Blair and are parents of Garrett (15), Jordyn (13) and Grant (8).

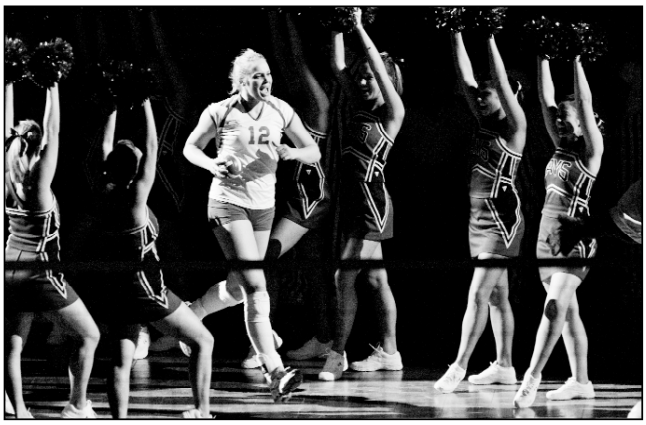
About This Survey

These results based on a survey given to the 10 returning women from the 2006 Creighton Volleyball team.

Players were not allowed to vote for incoming players, but were allowed to vote for themselves if they desired.



The spotlights focused on Kelly Goc as starting line-ups are introduced.

Creighton won game one over No. 1 Nebraska, 30-27.

What a crowd! The 12,112 fans were the second-largest volleyball-only crowd in NCAA regular-season history.

Maggie Workman and Carolyn Decker sign post-match autographs.

Creighton faced off against top-ranked Nebraska before 12,112 fans at Qwest Center OMAHA™.

The 2006 volleyball team posed for a group picture prior to the State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Tournament banquet last November.

The 2006 Creighton volleyball team poses for a picture on a sculpture near the middle of campus.

The 2006 team flexed its muscle throughout a 21-10 season.

* Missouri Valley Conference Matches
All Times are Central

Fresh off a centennial celebration in 2006-07, the Missouri Valley Conference begins its second centennial as a leader in college athletics and is the nation's second-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

In the league's first 100 seasons, 32 members combined for 27 national championships, while 56 Valley student-athletes captured NCAA individual titles. In addition, Valley student-athletes and coaches earned 50 National Player or Coach of the Year honors in their respective sports. And the league had a myriad of student-athletes who collected All-America honors and earned national academic distinction in The Valley's first century.

The Missouri Valley Conference continues to lead by example as one of college athletics' most progressive conferences. The Valley emphasizes the importance of the student-athlete and is aggressive in its approach to provide opportunities for its member institutions.

While the success of men's basketball has received the greatest attention, the overall performance of league teams in virtually every sport continues to raise the national profile of the conference.

In men's basketball, The Valley has received much national acclaim over the past decade during its return to prominence. In 2007-08, the MVC will be looking to extend its streak of consecutive seasons with two or more teams advancing to NCAA Tournament play to 10-straight years. Last year, two teams (Creighton, Southern Illinois) made the field with SIU reaching the Sweet 16. Meanwhile, the league finished No. 6 - its all-time high - in the Ratings Percentage Index (RPI) a second-straight season. Notably, The Valley has had 10 post-season teams in men's basketball over the past two seasons, with three NCAA Sweet 16 trips (Bradley, Southern Illinois and Wichita State).

The Valley made history in March 2007 with record attendance for four days at St. Louis' Scottrade Center as 85,074 fans turned out to watch the five sessions of the tournament. The two sellout crowds of 22,612 for the semifinals and final of the 2007 State Farm Tournament set an all-time attendance record for basketball at the arena and also gave The Valley the distinction of having the largest championship crowd for any of the 30 NCAA conferences in 2007.

There were plenty of other milestones for The Valley in the athletic arena in 2006-07. In February 2007, The Valley announced its State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Women's Basketball Championship would move to a neutral site for the first time in league history, bringing the championship to The Family Arena in Saint Charles, Mo. Three league teams, meanwhile, represented the MVC in post-season play as Drake, despite its No. 8 seed, won the league tourney to reach the NCAAs, while Illinois State and Southern Illinois each got to the second round of the WNIT.

In baseball, Wichita State was nationally ranked for the entire season, winning 53 games and finishing one series win shy of reaching the College World Series. Creighton won the State Farm MVC Tournament behind the MVP pitching performance of junior ambidextrous hurler Pat Venditte as the Bluejays joined the Shockers in NCAA play.

Three Missouri Valley Conference softball programs -- 2007 MVC Tournament champion Creighton, Illinois State and Southern Illinois -- represented the league in the 2007 NCAA Division I Softball Championship. It marked the fifth-consecutive year The Valley has earned multiple bids to the NCAA tournament and the third-straight season in which three teams have earned spots in the field. SIU hosted a NCAA regional, and each Valley team won a tournament game.

In men's soccer, Creighton won the league tournament championship and gained a spot in its 15th consecutive NCAA Soccer Tournament. Bradley tied for the regular-season championship but failed to earn a bid to the NCAA Tournament. In women's soccer, Drake won its first State Farm MVC Tournament title to secure its first NCAA Tournament berth in school history.

In volleyball, for the first time in league history, two teams advanced to the second round of the NCAA Volleyball Tournament in the same year as conference champ UNI and tournament runner-up Missouri State advanced with 3-1 victories in opening-round play. The Panthers defeated Big South champion Winthrop and Missouri State defeated Arkansas of the Southeastern Conference.

During the tenure of Doug Elgin, The Valley's ninth and longest-tenured commissioner, The Valley has been aggressive in hosting NCAA events in St. Louis. That role came to a spectacular climax in April 2005 as the conference collaborated with local partners to stage the Men's Final Four at the Edward Jones Dome.

And while the Missouri Valley Conference has been progressive in pursuing NCAA events, the oldest Division I athletic conference west of the Mississippi River has continued to be a national leader in the athletic arena.

The seeds for this vision were planted by eight administrators representing five institutions, who met at the Midland Hotel in Kansas City, Mo., on Jan. 12, 1907. The five schools which formed the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association were Washington University of St. Louis, and the state universities of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska. Two months after the initial meeting, two more schools -- Drake University and Iowa State -- were admitted.

In the fall of 1907, basketball became the first competitive sport. Today, the Missouri Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country and track & field (indoor and outdoor), men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

Athletic accomplishments on the men's athletics side include 10 national basketball championships, 16 trips to the NCAA Final Four, a 1989 national baseball championship and 19 College World Series qualifiers. In 2001, Missouri State added to The Valley women's accomplishments, as the Lady Bears advanced to the Women's Basketball Final Four in St. Louis. Creighton (2004) and Missouri State (2005) have claimed national championships (WNIT) in women's basketball, while MSU also has a 1992 NCAA Women's Final Four appearance, and Creighton (2003) and Drake (1999) have made semifinal trips to the WNIT postseason tournament.

Indeed, the inclusion of women's programs under The Valley banner has provided a boost. The Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference -- which began in 1982 -- merged with the Missouri Valley Conference and was unveiled as part of the new conference on July 1, 1992.

And while the inclusion of women's sports under a comprehensive athletic umbrella is a recent development in the league's storied history, over the years, Valley student-athletes and coaches have become household names during the league's illustrious history, both during their collegiate careers and, for some, professional careers.

In fact, The Valley began honoring that tradition in the summer of 1997, when the conference began its athletics Hall of Fame. Hersey Hawkins of Bradley, Larry Bird of Indiana State, Wes Unseld of Louisville, Coach Henry Iba of Oklahoma State, Dave Stallworth of Wichita State, Ed Macauley of Saint Louis, and Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati were members of the initial induction class. Currently, more than 30 former players, coaches and alums dot the league's Hall of Fame.

Men's basketball, perhaps, has the league's most storied tradition with the likes of Hall of Famers Bird and Robertson, but The Valley has also produced national-caliber student-athletes in its other sponsored sports. In 2001, Missouri State's Jackie Stiles became the first Valley woman to earn the Honda-Broderick Cup, given to the nation's top female collegiate student-athlete. In the sport of track and field, Indiana State's Holli Hyche captured seven national sprint titles in the early 1990s, Southern Illinois' Darrin Plab won back-to-back NCAA outdoor high jump titles in 1991 and 1992, and SIU's Brittany Riley became the World record holder in the weight throw in 2007. In the fall of 1997, Creighton's Johnny Torres was named the collegiate male soccer player of the year for a second-straight year, while SMU's Luchi Gonzalez (2001) and Tulsa's Ryan Pore (2004) have also earned a National Player of the Year honor in men's soccer. Meanwhile league member Wichita State has produced three national collegiate players of the year in baseball, including Joe Carter (1981), Phil Stephenson (1982) and Darren Dreifort (1993).

From its early beginning to its current standing on the map of college athletics, The Valley will always continue to be proactive in its approach.

League members include Bradley University, Creighton University, Drake University, the University of Evansville, Illinois State University, Indiana State University, Missouri State University, the University of Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois University, and Wichita State University. Affiliate men's soccer members include Eastern Illinois University and Western Kentucky University.

The 2006 volleyball season further solidified Creighton's emergence on the national collegiate volleyball scene. Not only did the program win a modern-record 21 matches, but it also won a game from eventual national champion Nebraska and hosted the second-largest volleyball-only regular-season crowd in NCAA history.

Creighton started the season with a 10-1 mark, including tournament titles at the Holiday Inn Classic (Bozeman, Mont.) and the Blue Raider Bash (Murfreesboro, Tenn.). The trip to Bozeman was highlighted by three consecutive 3-0 sweeps, including a win over perennial-power Nevada in the season lid-lifter. CU also swept a Florida Atlantic team coming off a 29-3 season, but got some bad news the following day when it was learned that star outside hitter Carolyn Decker would be lost for the season with a torn anterior cruciate knee ligament.

The Blue Raider Bash included a sweep over tournament host Middle Tennessee, a squad that would upset Louisville in the NCAA Tournament later in the year, as well as a win over NCAA Tournament participant Saint Louis.

The Jays also were runner-up at the Bluejay Invitational, including a dramatic five-game win over Jacksonville State in the home opener that saw the Jays overcome the temporary loss of all-Valley middle blocker Kelly Goc.

Creighton then opened conference play on Sept. 15 against Evansville with a quick 3-0 win, and never slowed down. The Jays would open MVC play a program-best 5-0, including a four-game win at Illinois State, before dropping a five-game match against eventual league champ Northern Iowa. A week after the heart-breaking loss to UNI, Creighton was one point from losing before a dramatic turnaround to beat Wichita State in five games on the road. The Bluejays would finish conference play with a 12-6 mark, including six wins away from home, to take fourth in The Valley.

An MVC-record 12,112 fans saw Creighton battle eventual national champion Nebraska on Sept. 24, 2006.

The fourth-seeded Jays opened the MVC Tournament by showing its Sept. 29 win at Illinois State was no fluke, downing host Illinois State once again in four games. CU then faced top-seeded UNI again, losing the first two games by just two points each before falling to the Panthers to end the season.

Without a doubt, one of the lasting memories from the 2006 season will be the Sept. 24 match with top-ranked Nebraska. The Bluejays stood toe-to-toe for two games with the eventual national champs, winning game one 30-27 and owning a 23-22 lead late in game two before dropping a four-game match. The match drew 12,112 fans -- second most in NCAA regular-season history -- for an electric environment at Qwest Center Omaha, which would also host the 2006 NCAA Volleyball Championships.

Thanks in large part to that Sept. 24 crowd of over 12,000 fans, Creighton would finish 16th nationally in attendance at 1,611 fans per match.

Individually, Creighton was an offensive machine with a multitude of weapons for setter Korie Lebeda to choose from. Lebeda led the MVC in assists for the second straight season and was named first-team all-MVC along with Goc. Jessica Houts ranked among the Valley's top-10 in kills and blocks per game to earn second-team all-MVC accolades, while Amanda Cvejdlik also ranked among the top-10 in the MVC in both kills per game and aces per game.

Leading the defense was a trio of upperclassmen. Senior captain Emily Greisch saw extensive time and was fourth on the team with 280 digs. She would also go on to be named a third-team CoSIDA Academic All-American, CU Volleyball's first such honoree. Also aiding the defense with more than 400 digs on the year were juniors Abby Baumann (2.78 kpg., 3.80 dpg.) and Katie Mehal (4.24 dpg.).

The Bluejays also got healthy contributions from freshmen Sarah Schulze (1.30 kpg., 3.12 dpg.), Lauren Bloemke (1.09 kpg., 0.92 bpg.) and Maggie Workman (1.67 dpg.).

Kills and Kills Per Game

A kill is awarded to a player any time an attack is unreturnable by the opposition and is a direct cause of the opponent not returning the ball or any time the attack leads directly to a blocking error by the opposition. A kill leads directly to a point.
Kills Per Game = Kills / Games Played

About These Records

These records only reflect matches played since Creighton Volleyball's reinstatement in 1994. Persons with more information on the teams from 1973-79 are encouraged to contact the Creighton Sports Information Office at (402) 280-5544 to help rebuild the past.

Names and records in bold on these pages were set in 2006.

Attack Pct. and Attack Attempts

Attack Percentage = (Kills - Attack Errors) / Attack Attempts
An attack attempt is recorded any time a player attempts to attack (hit strategically) the ball into the opponents court. The ball may be set, spiked, tipped or hit as an overhead contact.

Aces and Aces Per Game

A service ace is a serve that results directly in a point. An ace is awarded if the serve strikes the opponent's court untouched, the serve is passed by the opponent but can't be kept in play, if the referee calls a violation on the receiver, or if the receiving team is out of rotation.

Block Solos and Block Assists

A block solo is awarded when a single player blocks the ball into the opposition's court leading directly to a point. That player must be the only blocker attempting to block the ball.
A block assist is awarded when two or three players block the ball into the opponents court for a point. Each player blocking receives a block assist even if only one player actually makes contact with the ball.

Points and Points Per Game

Points are a relatively new volleyball stat, having been introduced with the beginning of rally scoring in 2001. Points are awarded for positive contributions that lead directly to a point for a player's team. Points = Kills + Aces + Block Solos + .5(Block Assists)
Points Per Game = Points / Games Played

Head Coach History

Ben Guiliano

Ben Guiliano helped lay the groundwork for Creighton volleyball as the man in charge when Creighton reinstated volleyball prior to the 1994 season. Guiliano guided the Bluejays from 1994-96 and posted a 25-58 record in that time.

Howard Wallace

Howard Wallace took over prior to the 1997 season and led the Bluejays to four Missouri Valley Conference Tournament appearances in his six years on the job. In 1997, Wallace was named the MVC's Co-Coach of the Year after guiding the Jays to a third-place finish in league play. He resigned December 10, 2002 with a 68-94 record in six seasons on the Bluejay bench.

Kirsten Bernthal Booth

Kirsten Bernthal Booth became the program's third head coach with her February 3, 2003 appointment. She owns a record of 67-53 entering 2007 and is the school's all-time leader with a .558 winning percentage. Booth already ranks ninth in MVC history in winning percentage.

Emily Greisch (2003-06)

Creighton Degree: 2007 in Nursing
Current Job: Newborn Intensive Care Nurse at Children's Hospital
Current Location: Omaha, Neb.

"Playing volleyball at Creighton was one of the best decisions that I have ever made. I loved everything that we did together. I loved the practices, the matches, the road trips, and most of all the teammates and friends that I have made throughout my four years.

"I learned so much during my time at Creighton. I got a great education in the classroom and learned many life lessons from the team. I really was able to grow as a person. I have taken so many skills that I learned while playing volleyball into my career as a nurse now. Being a student athlete really helped me to understand being a true team player and it also helped me use time management skills.

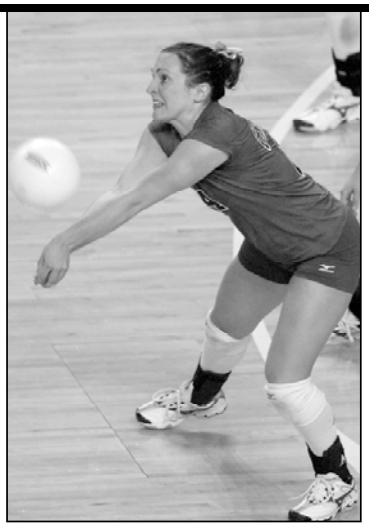
"I am so grateful for the wonderful coaching staff and the lasting friendships with my teammates. I am very excited to have been a part of Creighton volleyball's history and to see the great places the team will go in the future!"

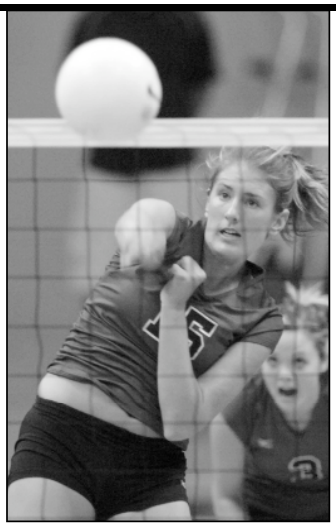
Janeen Piller (2001-04)

Creighton Degree: 2005 in Exercise Science
Current Job: Attending Physician Assistant School at University of Nebraska Medical Center
Current Location: Omaha, Nebraska

"My college career at Creighton was more than I could have dreamed for. The athletic program as a whole was a second family to me. The support I received from the staff and my teammates was something I will never forget. I feel so privileged to have been coached by such an amazing coaching staff and have formed friendships that will last forever.

"The sky is the limit for the future Creighton Volleyball girls. The coaching staff has done an excellent job building a foundation and bringing in exceptional athletes that will continue to help the program reach the top level."





Leah Ratzlaff (2002-05)

Creighton Degree: 2006 in Psychology
Currently: Starting second year of law school at Creighton

"I had never even heard of Creighton when I was recruited, and now I can't imagine my life without Creighton volleyball. Being part of this program created some of the best memories I will ever have and also introduced me to some amazing people that I know I will be friends with for the rest of my life.

"The team is going to be making some huge strides this season and in the next few years. The NCAA tournament is definitely within their reach. I'm just glad I'll be able to say I was there to help build the foundation and get it all started.

"I truly feel that playing volleyball has made me the person I am today. Not only did it take some qualities I already had and improve on them, like competitiveness and determination, but being part of this program also helped me develop new skills, like leadership and time management,

CU VOLLEYBALL TIMELINE

September 2, 1994: In the program's first match since 1979, the Bluejays record a 3-0 win against UT-Chattanooga at the Tulane Invitational in New Orleans. Game scores were 18-16, 15-8, 15-3. Creighton ended its first season with an overall record of 5-20 and tied for ninth in the Missouri Valley Conference at 3-17.

September 10, 1994: Melissa Weisensee records the first triple-double in the history of the program with 40 assists, 19 digs and 10 kills during a four-game loss to Illinois State.

September 9, 1995: Almost a year to the day since Melissa Weisensee recorded Creighton's first triple-double, JoDe Cieloha accomplishes the feat again with 15 kills, 10 digs and 12 total blocks (11 block assists) in a loss at Bradley.

November 21, 1995: Creighton ends the season with a non-league win versus UMKC to finish with its first-ever double-figure win total at 11-19. The Bluejays also went 6-14 in MVC matches to improve to a tie for seventh place in the standings.

August 31, 1996: With wins against Murray State, UW-Green Bay and UMKC, the Bluejays finish with a 3-1 mark at the Creighton First Serve Festival. It is the first time Creighton records a winning record at a tourney.

November 2, 1996: Michelle Prorock records a school-record 32 kills in a four-game win over Evansville.

November 10, 1996: JoDe Cieloha finishes with 22 kills, 15 digs and 12 total blocks (two solo) in a five-game loss at Western Illinois for her second career triple-double performance.

November 9, 1997: Melissa Weisensee registers her second career triple-double, and the fourth in Creighton annals, by finishing with 65 assists, 22 digs and 12 kills in a five-game loss at Evansville.

November 20, 1997: After its best-ever third-place finish in the MVC's regular season standings, Creighton and first-year head coach Howard Wallace make their first appearance at the MVC Tournament. The Jays prove they belong, topping Indiana State in three games.

October 16, 1998: Freshman setter Kailey Reyes joins Creighton's triple-double club and the Bluejays win! The first four triple-doubles had come during Bluejay losses. Reyes ended the night with 62 assists, 21 digs and 10 kills in the five-game win vs. Indiana State.

October 9, 1999: Creighton posts a 3-2 win at Wichita State, thanks in large part to setter Kailey Reyes' second career triple-double. Reyes, who earned Second-Team All-MVC honors at the end of the season, finished with 47 assists, 11 kills and 11 digs.

November 16, 1999: Melissa Walsh is named to the Missouri Valley Conference's First Team, becoming the first Creighton volleyball player to have earned the honor. Walsh paced the Bluejays with a school-record 428 kills, plus 338 digs and 104 total blocks (13 solo).

September 2, 2000: The Bluejays finish a perfect season-opening weekend by defeating Iowa State, Idaho and UNC-Greensboro to win the Iowa State Heritage Classic. It marks the first time in program history that the Jays were able to win a tournament. Melissa Walsh was named the tournament's MVP and was joined on the all-tourney team by Kailey Reyes.

October 14, 2000: Kailey Reyes strikes again, recording her third career triple-double and the seventh in Creighton history. Reyes finished with 71 assists, 17 digs and 13 kills in a five-game win at Indiana State.

November 24, 2000: Melissa Walsh and Kailey Reyes become the first Bluejay duo to earn first team all-MVC accolades in the same year.

July 31, 2001: Creighton is tabbed for second in the MVC's Preseason Coaches Poll, marking the highest spot the Jays have ever attained in the poll. The 1994 squad was tabbed for 11th in the then-11-team league, while 1995's team was predicted 9th, 1996 (9th), 1997 (8th), 1998 (6th), 1999 (tie 7th) and 2000 (4th).

September 8, 2001: Creighton wins game two of its match with #24 Santa Clara on the Broncos home floor. It marks the first game Creighton has ever won against a ranked team in eight matches.

October 6, 2001: Melissa Walsh becomes Creighton's all-time leader when she pounds her 1,376th career kill vs. Southern Illinois and leads the Bluejays to a best-ever 6-1 MVC start.

October 12, 2001: Molly Moran breaks Melissa Weisensee's school record when she records her 126th career service ace in a win over Bradley. CU opens MVC play 7-1.

November 10, 2001: Kailey Reyes sets Creighton's all-time assists record when she records her 4,019th career assist at Bradley.

November 16, 2001: Kailey Reyes sets her second school record in a week when she sets the career digs mark with 1,224 all-time in a win over Wichita State.

November 20, 2001: Melissa Walsh and Kailey Reyes are named first-team all-MVC, while Erin Swanson is a second-team all-league pick. It is Walsh's third straight honor and Reyes' second consecutive. In addition, Ashley Williams is picked to the all-Newcomer squad.

March 19, 2002: Molly Moran is named a National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) All-American Athlete for 2002. Creighton Strength & Conditioning coach Satoshi Ochi nominated Moran due to her dedication to strength training and conditioning.

September 29, 2002: A crowd of 8,627 fans gather in Lincoln to watch Creighton face #5 Nebraska as part of the Nebraska Volleyball Classic. The attendance figure remains the largest in school history ever to see a Creighton match.

February 3, 2003: Kirsten Bernthal Booth is hired to become the third coach in modern Creighton Volleyball history. Booth replaces Howard Wallace, who resigned after six seasons on Dec. 10, 2002.

August 29, 2003: Brittany Coleman has 55 assists and 10 digs at Iowa State to join JoDe Cieloha as the only players in school history to debut with a double-double.

September 19, 2003: Creighton moves into the Omaha Civic Auditorium to play its first season of games there. A then-record crowd of 806 fans sees Creighton open MVC play with a five-game victory over Southern Illinois.

November 15, 2003: Leah Ratzlaff's first kill of game two is her 436th of the season, passing Melissa Walsh for most in a single-season in school history.

Korie Lebeda (far left), Amanda Cvejdlik and coach Kirsten Bernthal Booth meet the media after facing #1 Nebraska on September 24, 2006 before 12,112 fans.

Creighton beat Northern Iowa for the first time on Nov. 18, 2005 with a five-set win at West Gym.

November 21, 2003: Creighton beats Evansville in four games to clinch its fourth MVC Tournament bid in five years. Brittany Coleman's season-high 69 assists gives her CU's new single-season mark, passing Kailey Reyes' 1,237.

September 4, 2004: Freshman Carolyn Decker serves a school-record eight aces as Creighton downs host New Mexico to win the Comcast Lobo Invitational, the program's second tournament win ever.

September 10, 2004: The Jays upset perennial NCAA Tournament qualifier Missouri in Columbia to open a three-match run to the Quality Inn Tiger Invitational title. Sarah Beulke is named Tournament MVP.

September 17, 2004: Creighton wins its program-best seventh straight match, opening MVC play with a sweep over Indiana State.

October 23, 2004: Creighton defeats eventual MVC regular-season and tourney champ Wichita State in five games, snapping the Shockers' 13-match win streak.

September 3, 2005: Creighton sweeps host San Diego State to win the SDSU Invitational. Creighton hits .414 in the tournament, which featured three sweeps.

October 28, 2005: Korie Lebeda surpasses 1,000 career assists in her 23rd career match, fastest in program history to that milestone. Lebeda would finish the year with 13.34 assists per game, an MVC record.

November 18, 2005: Creighton stuns host Northern Iowa at West Gymnasium, beating the Panthers for the first time in 25 all-time meetings.

November 19, 2005: A game two kill by Leah Ratzlaff lets her pass Melissa Walsh for most kills in program history. Ratzlaff would finish with 1,622 kills, 26 more than Walsh, in her standout career.

September 10, 2006: Creighton beats eventual NCAA Tournament teams Saint Louis and Middle Tennessee to win the Blue Raider Bash in Murfreesboro, Tenn.

September 24, 2006: The second-largest regular-season volleyball-only crowd in NCAA history (12,112) is on hand as Creighton faces #1 Nebraska at Qwest Center Omaha. Creighton wins game one 30-27 and leads game two 23-22 before eventually losing in four games.

October 13, 2006: Creighton survives a Wichita State match point to rally and stun the Shockers, 17-15 in game five of a road match against the two-time defending league champs.

November 24, 2006: Korie Lebeda sets the single-season record for assists in a season on the same day the Jays beat Illinois State in the MVC Tournament.

November 28, 2006: Senior Emily Greisch is named a CoSIDA Third-Team Academic All-American. The Nursing major owned a 4.00 GPA and is the volleyball program's first All-American of any kind.

The home to Creighton volleyball and women's basketball, the Omaha Civic Auditorium is located just one block away from the eastern edge of the Creighton campus.

The building opened in the winter of 1955 and served as the home to Creighton men's basketball until the fall of 2003, when the team moved a mile away to luxurious Qwest Center Omaha. It is also the current home of the Omaha Beef (United Indoor Football League) and former home of the Kansas City/Omaha Kings (NBA) and Omaha Ak-Sar-Ben Knights (American Hockey League).

More than $26 million in renovations has been spent in the last 10 years, helping to keep the 9,377-seat facility among the league's nicest and loudest home venues.

From 2001-03, the Bluejay women's basketball team put together a 23-game winning streak that ranked second nationally to Connecticut. Likewise, the Bluejay men's basketball team was 44-3 in their final 47 contests at the Civic.

Last year the Creighton volleyball team hosted a total of 20,940 fans, a new single-season attendance record for the program. Included in this was the second-largest volleyball-only crowd in NCAA regular-season history when 12,112 fans saw Creighton battle Nebraska. CU finished 16th nationally in average attendance in 2006.

A look at the Omaha Civic Auditorium from the outside.

The Omaha Civic Auditorium is among the MVC's top volleyball venues.

Creighton hosted an MVC-record 12,112 fans last year vs. Nebraska.

Location

Creighton is located in Omaha, Neb., population 409,416 with a combined metropolitan population of 1.1 million people in eight counties.

Creighton History

Founded in 1878, Creighton University is a private co-educational university in the United States, founded by the Society of Jesus and one of 28 member institutions of the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities.

Creighton Today

The Creighton of today is nationally recognized as the leading comprehensive university in the Midwest. Creighton is synonymous with student centered education and the setting for significant undergraduate student research. As one of 28 universities in America designed in the Jesuit tradition of academic excellence and service to others, Creighton believes in humanistic education through service, reflection and learning. We also seek to create an inclusive, diverse community at the University. Today, Creighton offers more than 50 majors in the undergraduate divisions of Arts and Sciences, Business Administration and the School of Nursing, plus six prestigious professional schools: medicine, dentistry, law, pharmacy, physical therapy and occupational therapy.

The 2007 freshman academic profile places Creighton among the top five private universities in the Midwest, and among the top 10 Catholic universities in the nation. And U.S. News & World Report lists Creighton as a "best value" one of the schools where students get the best return on their tuition investment. Creighton has also been cited as outstanding by other publications, including Money, Kiplinger's Personal Finance and Peterson's Best 311 Colleges.

Student Life at Creighton

- Ten nationally recognized social fraternities and sororities.
- More than 180 active student clubs and organizations.
- High-speed Internet access in each of the nine residence halls, apartment living for juniors and seniors, and a special hall for graduate and married students.
- Creighton is a wireless campus, accommodating the more than 95 percent of students with mobile computing devices.
- Creighton welcomes students of all religious beliefs and the University encourages students to participate in faith retreats, faith sharing opportunities and multi-faith services.

Student Snapshot

Creighton students come from every state and more than 40 countries. Of our 6,981 students, 4,075 are enrolled as undergraduates, and 2,906 are in the graduate, law, medical, dental, pharmacy, physical therapy and occupational therapy programs.

The Creighton Campus

At Creighton, we are committed to having the best campus around. The 130-acre campus is located within walking distance of downtown Omaha and many recreational, cultural and entertainment opportunities. To date, Creighton has invested more than $190 million in on-campus improvements and constructed four new buildings, including Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium, which distinguishes Omaha as the exclusive host of the region's only athletic facility designed exclusively for soccer. The stadium hosts high school, club and international soccer events and a variety of Omaha community events. The Hixson-Lied Science Building and the renovated Rigge Science Building and Criss Health Sciences Building are the centerpiece of Creighton's undergraduate and health professions leading approach to teaching and research. Davis Square and Opus Hall are new upperclassmen town homes located on the east side of campus.

At the center of the campus is the historic and recently restored St. John's Church, the California Street Mall, the Lied Education Center for the Arts, a modern student center and physical fitness facility.

Creighton was recognized in 2006 as a "best-neighbor" urban university. Creighton was the only university in Nebraska and its surrounding states identified as an academic institution making a positive contribution to the local city by dramatically strengthening the quality of life and economy, as well as renewing and revitalizing its surrounding community.

Opus Hall upper classmen town homes opened in August 2006.

Community Service & Outreach

Creighton seeks to educate women and men who are not only proficient in their professions, but who are enlivened with a spirit of service and emboldened to create a more just world.

Faculty

- A total of 906 faculty members (717 full-time, 189 part-time).
- Student-to-faculty ratio of 12:1.
- At Creighton, the faculty is conducting internationally recognized work in many areas, including hereditary cancer, osteoporosis, hearing impairment, bone metabolism, regional economics and more.

2006-07 Athletics Highlights

- Creighton athletics ranked tied for 23rd nationally with a 94 percent graduation success rate.
- Creighton student-athletes owned a GPA of 3.27 last spring.
- Creighton serves as the annual host institution for the NCAA College World Series. June 13-23, 2008 will mark the 59th consecutive year the CWS comes to Rosenblatt Stadium in Omaha.
- The volleyball team won a modern-record 21 matches in 2007.
- The men's soccer team capped its 15th consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance in 2006 while remaining the only program with at least one selection in every MLS draft. The program has made three College Cup showings since 1996.

- The men's basketball program set an MVC record with its ninth straight 20-win season while advancing to the postseason for a 10th consecutive season in 2006-07.
- The 2007 softball team won its fourth MVC Tournament in the past five years while also winning the regular-season title.
- The 2007 baseball team won its first MVC Tournament title, was nationally-ranked, and had three different pitchers earn All-America honors.
- Creighton ranked 10th nationally in men's soccer attendance, 13th in men's basketball and 16th in volleyball attendance in 2006-07.
- Creighton will co-host the first two rounds of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament at Qwest Center OMAHA™ on March 20 & 22, 2008. Qwest Center OMAHA™ will also host the US Olympic Team Trials for Swimming (June 29-July 6) and NCAA Volleyball Championships (Dec. 18-20) in 2008.

History of Billy Bluejay

"Billy Bluejay" is the official mascot of the Creighton University athletics department. The Bluejays were originally depicted by a "birdwatcher's bluejay," but that was changed in 1941 when Joseph P. Murphy, a Creighton alumnus, designed the current version of Billy, one with a more human stance and expression.

Prior to 1924, Creighton teams were referred to as the "Hilltoppers," but that name lost favor because at least six other teams in the country also used the same nickname. The Omaha Bee assisted the University's Athletic Board and Alumni Association in finding a new nickname by asking readers to submit possibilities. After reviewing 200 entries, the Athletic Board decided upon "Bluejays" because of the school's colors, blue and white.

Today, Creighton remains the only NCAA Division I athletics program known officially as the Bluejays.

Under the leadership of Creighton President the Rev. John P. Schlegel, S.J., Creighton University is nationally recognized as the premier comprehensive university in the Midwest and is experiencing a new era of growth and prosperity.

Fr. Schlegel became Creighton University's 23rd president in August 2000, following nine years as president of the University of San Francisco.

Through his vision, the University is embarking on its most ambitious campus expansion in its 129-year history. Creighton University is becoming a national model showcasing a dynamic faith-based living and learning community in a 21st century urban environment.

In 2005, Fr. Schlegel announced Willing To Lead: The Campaign For Creighton University – an ambitious $350 million capital campaign designed to secure Creighton's place as one of the premier Jesuit, Catholic universities in the United States.

Since he arrived the University has added more than 20 acres to its campus and invested more than $190 million in new construction, renovation and campus improvement. Already recognized as a leader in science education, the University has renovated many of its science-related facilities and is home to the new state-of-the-art Hixson Lied Science Building. This integrated science center and the Creighton University Medical Center provide a national model for interdisciplinary health sciences education and research.

Creighton's expanding campus offers a welcoming environment for all students. Last fall, Creighton opened Opus Hall, one of two new resident town homes offering apartment living for junior and seniors. Creighton also is also scheduled to open the Mike and Josie Harper Center for Student Life and Learning in late-summer 2008. This unique facility will serve as a dramatic "front door" to the University, consolidating traditional student support services into one study-friendly location. Add to that the new Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium, which is among the premier college campus soccer facilities in the nation.

Prior to his service at the University of San Francisco, Fr. Schlegel was Creighton University's assistant academic vice president (1978-82), academic dean of Rockhurst College (1982-84), dean of arts and sciences at Marquette University (1984-88), and executive and academic vice president at John Carroll University (1988-91).

Fr. Schlegel, a native of Dubuque, Iowa, entered the Society of Jesus in 1963 and was ordained in 1973. He holds B.A. and M.A. degrees from Saint Louis University; a B.D. honors degree in theology from the University of London; and a doctorate in international relations from Oxford University.

He is a member of numerous international, national and local boards of directors, executive committees and associations. Fr. Schlegel is a past member of the board of trustees of Chicago's Loyola University, Xavier University, Loyola University of the South, Saint Louis University and Loyola College in Maryland. Fr. Schlegel also is a director of the American International School of Hong Kong.

In Omaha, he serves on several boards including Creighton University Medical Center, Creighton Preparatory School, Duchesne Academy and Opera Omaha. He is a member of the board of directors and serves on the Executive Committees of the Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce, Joslyn Art Museum and Mid-America Council, Boy Scouts of America. In 2007, he became a distinguished Eagle Scout.

Previously, he has held numerous board positions with an array of organizations including St. Mary's Medical Center Foundation, Il Cenacolo, Coro, World Affairs Council of Northern California, the Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities, the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, where he served as chair of the National Student Aid Task Force, and Heythrop College at the University of London.

Fr. Schlegel also has served on accreditation site visits for the North Central Association, and was a consultant to the Organization for Economic Development and Cooperation based in Paris.

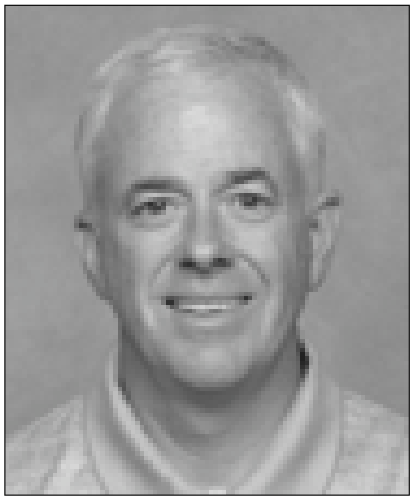
In 2007, he received the Distinguished Eagle Scout Award from the Mid-America Council, Boy Scouts of America.

In May of 2004 the Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society Lodge 1 in Omaha presented him with the 2004 Honored Citizen Award for his outstanding leadership of Creighton University. For his promotion of understanding and respect among all races, religions and cultures, Fr. Schlegel received the Otto Swanson Spirit of Service Award from the National Conference for Community and Justice in May 2003. Fr. Schlegel also received the first Champion of Greatness Award from Special Olympics Nebraska.

He enjoys opera, classical music, gourmet cooking, racket sports and the outdoors.

Creighton
UNIVERSITY

Fr. John P. Schlegel, S.J., became Creighton's 23rd president in August, 2000.



Bruce Rasmussen enters his 14th year as director of athletics, and 28th overall at Creighton University.

During his tenure, Creighton has risen to prominence with its success on-and-off the field, impressive new facilities and record-breaking fundraising efforts.

The men's soccer team is one of a handful of schools to appear in each of the last 15 NCAA Tournaments, while the men's basketball team is just the second team in the 101-year history of the Missouri Valley Conference to reach the postseason in 10 straight campaigns. Combined, Creighton is the only school in the country that can claim 10 consecutive postseason appearances in men's soccer and men's basketball.

The Creighton softball team has made four NCAA Tournament appearances in the last five years, while the baseball team won a MVC regular-season title in 2005 and MVC Tournament title in 2007 while spending time in the national rankings in each of the past three seasons. CU was the nation's only school to win league tournaments in baseball, men's basketball and men's soccer in 2006-07.

Four Creighton teams moved to new facilities in 2003-04. The men's basketball team moved to the riverfront to play in the brand-new, $291 million, Qwest Center OMAHA™. Last winter, the Jays averaged an MVC-record 15,909 fans per game and ranked 13th nationally in attendance.

The Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium opened as one of the premier soccer venues in the country. Located on the east edge of the Creighton campus, the complex includes 6,000 seats and will serve as the home for the 2007 State Farm Missouri Valley Conference Men's Soccer Tournament this fall.

Additionally, the Creighton volleyball team found a new home at the venerable Omaha Civic Auditorium in 2003. The move closer to campus paid big dividends, as the program has increased its attendance nearly 700 percent in the past four years.

Rasmussen also has continued to make outstanding hires at every opportunity. Most recently, Kirsten Bernthal Booth has helped the volleyball team improve by 18 wins in her first four seasons, while Ed Servais earned MVC Coach of the Year honors in three of his first four years.

Another recent hire, women's basketball's Jim Flanery, matched the league record with 48 wins in his first two seasons. He led his first three teams to the postseason. CU's 2004 women's basketball team won the school's first postseason national title of any kind when they won the WNIT.

A member of the College World Series of Omaha, Inc., Executive Committee, Rasmussen plays a vital role in Creighton and the city of Omaha remaining as host of the College World Series. The CWS has established new attendance records in four of the past five years at Rosenblatt Stadium.

Rasmussen was one of four regional winners from the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) to take home a 2004 GeneralSports TURF Systems AD of the Year Award.

In terms of academics, Creighton's reputation as one of the nation's top academic institutions is reflected in the success the Bluejay student-athletes have had in the classroom during Rasmussen's service as athletics director. Creighton's baseball, men's basketball, women's basketball, volleyball, men's and women's cross country, women's soccer and men's and women's tennis teams all have received national awards for their academic success. Bluejay student-athletes consistently own GPA's of 3.25 or above.

Creighton's primary annual fund-raising events are the Bluejay Bash and the Bluejay Jamboree. Under Rasmussen's supervision, each of these events continues to raise record-breaking funds for Creighton athletics. Most notably, the 2006 Jamboree generated more than $291,000 through its gourmet dinner, raffle and auction.

The successful fund-raising efforts have allowed Creighton to enhance its soccer, baseball and softball facilities under Rasmussen's leadership. In 1998, the $1.7 million Student-Athlete Support Center renovation project was completed in the Old Gymnasium, resulting in seven new team locker rooms, an expanded athletic training facility, new offices and storage space and an academic learning center. The centerpiece of the project is The Parker Family Foundation Academic Learning Center, which houses the athletic department's academic support team and features 20 computer stations and private study areas.

Rasmussen accepted the associate athletics director position in 1992 after a 12-year run as the winningest coach in Creighton women's basketball history (196-147), culminating in the program's historic 1991-92 season.

The 1992 Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Rasmussen led the 1991-92 Bluejay women to a program-record 28 wins (28-4), the WAC regular-season and tournament championships and a first-round NCAA Tournament victory in the program's first-ever trip to the "Big Dance." With that 28-4 record in 1991-92, Rasmussen completed his college coaching career with a 196-147 record, good for a .571 winning percentage.

After serving as associate athletics director for two years, 1992-94, Rasmussen was named athletics director on Aug. 1, 1994.

A 1971 graduate of Northern Iowa, Rasmussen came to Creighton from Bettendorf (Iowa) High School, where he put together a three-year girl's basketball coaching record of 64-15. His 1978-79 club posted a mark of 27-2 and finished second at the state tournament. Rasmussen also coached at Maxwell (Iowa) High School, with a four-year record of 66-26, and Murray (Iowa) High School, with a two-year ledger of 31-13.

A native of Webster City, Iowa, Rasmussen and his wife, Jill, have five children: Megan (22), David (20), John (16), Katy (12) and Grace (9).

Academic and Athletic Success

- Creighton's student-athletes combined for a 3.27 GPA last spring. The student-athletes own a 3.26 cumulative GPA.
- Creighton Athletics ranks first in the MVC and tied for 23rd nationally with a 94 percent graduation success rate.
- The NCAA recently introduced a new tool for the evaluation of the academic quality of participating programs. The Academic Progress Report is intended to gauge the progress student-athletes are making to degree completion and graduation. Creighton had a Valley-best seven teams post multi-year APR scores in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports: baseball, men's golf, men's tennis, women's basketball, women's cross country, women's soccer and women's tennis.
- Ninety-nine of Creighton's 232 student-athletes (42.7 percent) earned a 3.50 GPA or better during the Spring 2007 semester. Six of these athletes were Creighton volleyball players.
- Creighton had 131 student-athletes make the Dean's List at least once last year, including 70 student-athletes who earned the honor both semesters.
- Nineteen student-athletes (8.2 percent), including two volleyball players, earned perfect 4.00 GPA's during the Spring 2007 semester.
- One-hundred fifty-six student-athletes (67.2 percent) earned a 3.00 GPA or better in the Spring 2007 semester.
- Eight teams (women's crew, men's & women's cross country, men's & women's golf, women's soccer, women's tennis and volleyball) had team GPA's of 3.35 or better while four others were higher than 3.00.
- Creighton received the 2006-07 American Volleyball Coaches Association Team Academic Award for having a team GPA of 3.36 last spring and a 3.38 cumulative GPA. CU Volleyball also won the award in 1998, 1999, 2004, 2005 and 2006.
- Creighton owns 27 CoSIDA Academic All-American honors. Last year Emily Greisch became the volleyball program's first-ever Academic All-American, while Anthony Tolliver (men's basketball) and Jamie Reiss (softball) were also named Academic All-Americans.

Creighton Volleyball Wins 2006-07 AVCA Team Academic Award

The 2006-07 Creighton University volleyball team was honored by the American Volleyball Coaches Association as a recipient of the Game Plan/AVCA Team Academic Award. Creighton previously won the award in 1998, 1999, 2004, 2005 and 2006.

The award, initiated in the 1992-93 academic year, honors teams that displayed excellence in the classroom by maintaining at least a 3.30 cumulative GPA. Fifty-five Division I schools qualified for the honor in 2006-07, including five teams in the Missouri Valley Conference.

Creighton is one of just 11 schools to earn this award each of the past four years, joining American, Bowling Green, Indiana State, Kansas State, Denver, Evansville, Memphis, Toledo, Valparaiso and Wichita State.

Korie Lebeda, Abby Baumann and Emily Greisch were all named first-team choices on the Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athlete team last season, giving CU 10 such selections in the past four seasons. Greisch would also be named the program's first-ever Academic All-American.

Omaha is a rich cultural city with a dynamic business community. Ranked by Forbes magazine as one of the Top 10 Best Places for Business and Careers, Omaha balances Midwest values with big-city life in the heart of America. It showcases numerous nationally recognized and world-renowned attractions.

A center for information technology, telecommunications, transportation and food processing, Omaha is the center of a metropolitan area of about 734,270, with more than one million people within a 50-mile radius. Omaha is located near the geographic center of the United States, on the west bank of the Missouri River that forms the Nebraska-Iowa border. The metro Omaha area has seen steady growth over the past five decades and is now the 42nd largest city and 61st largest metro area in the nation.

Omaha boasts an outstanding public education system. Nebraska ranks among the top states nationally for ACT and SAT scores. For 129 years, Omaha has been home to Creighton University, which is known as the best comprehensive Jesuit institution in the nation, consistently at the top of U.S. News & World Report annual rankings.

Omaha serves as headquarters for four Forbes 500 companies: Berkshire Hathaway, ConAgra Foods, Union Pacific Corp., and Mutual of Omaha Companies. More than 20 insurance companies, two dozen direct response/telemarketing centers and a number of other national and international firms also have headquarters in Omaha. The headquarters of STRATCOM, a vital military nerve center located at Offutt Air Force Base, is located in Omaha.

Omaha's unemployment rate has remained well under the national average during the past decade. Still, Omaha has accommodated new growth. During the 1990s, the Omaha metro area added more than 84,000 jobs, an increase of more than 25 percent.

Omaha is a cultural center of the Great Plains, with more than 20 live theaters (three that produce original works), a professional opera company, a regional professional symphony orchestra, a professional children's theater, a children's museum and a youth orchestra. Joslyn Art Museum and the Durham Western Heritage Museum are the two largest of many area art and historical offerings.

The Omaha Henry Doorly Zoo has an international reputation for its breeding programs, and its outstanding "no bars" facility boasts the world's largest indoor rain forest, cat complex and aviary. Its newest additions are a salt water aquarium, the most technically advanced in the country, an IMAX theater, the largest indoor desert in the world and a gorilla complex.

Outstanding sporting events in the area include the annual NCAA College World Series, for which Creighton serves as host, Omaha Royals (AAA baseball), the Omaha Lancers (U.S. Hockey League), the Omaha Beef (United Indoor Football League) and a wide variety of collegiate and individual sports.

With all the city has to offer, Omaha enjoys a cost of living ranging up to 13 percent below the national average.

A view of the Omaha skyline at night.

Qwest Center OMAHA is home to Creighton men's basketball and will host Creighton's Sept. 2 volleyball match against Cal Poly. In 2008 it will host the first-and-second rounds of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament (March), the US Olympic Team Trials for Swimming (July) and NCAA Volleyball Championships (December).

For the 59th consecutive year, Omaha will serve as host city for the NCAA College World Series at Rosenblatt Stadium, June 13-23, 2008.

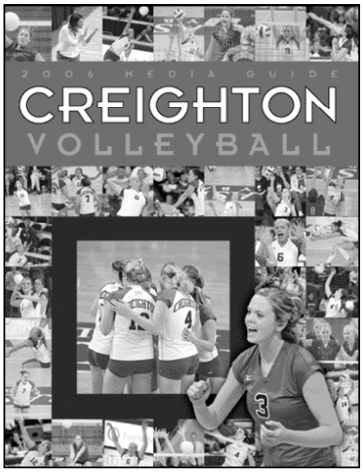
Creighton's '06 Media Guide Honored

Last year's Creighton Volleyball Media Guide was honored by USA Volleyball with the 2007 Viggo O. Nelson National Collegiate Media Guide Award.

The award, named after past president Viggo O. Nelson (1955-59), is meant to recognize organizations that have acheived excellence in volleyball publications and encourage others to develop quality publications.



Recent past recipients of the Women's Division 2A Award include Notre Dame (2006 and 2002), Wichita State (2005), Northwestern (2004), Tennessee Tech (2003) and Baylor (2001).

Creighton's 2006 guide (pictured at right) was produced by Sports Information Director Rob Anderson, with the outside covers created by Damon Andersen of Ralston company Creative Reservoir.
